

Since the passage of the No-Call list in Wisconsin, I have been very grateful to be able to be on the list and no longer hassled by calls I never wanted in the first place and that infringe on my personal freedom. The law has worked great here in Wisconsin!